

Michelle Miller
Trainer

Michelle has worked in the field of home visiting since 2007. For the last five years she has gratefully utilized the Growing Great Kids (GGK) curriculum as a Home Visitor, a Supervisor of home visitors, and a Program Coordinator in a HFA accredited program in Columbia, Tennessee. She received her GGK P-36 Trainer Certification in April 2016, and has served Tennessee home visiting programs as a Trainer since that time. In addition to serving as a GGK Trainer, Michelle is a Certified Lactation Counselor (CLC), and a Certified Educator of Infant Massage (CEIM). She also serves as an ACE's trainer for Tennessee's Building Strong Brains Initiative.

Every day, Michelle feels fortunate to get to do the work that improves lives for families, which she believes has a sustainable ripple effect for the communities and world in which we all live. Michelle has an AA in History, a BS in Sociology, and a MFA in Creative Writing. Michelle is a mother of three wonderful "grown" children and in her free time she enjoys reading, writing, kayaking, yoga, and hiking.
