

Phyllis Jones
Trainer

Phyllis Jones joined the Great Kids Training Team in 2004. She is certified as both an Integrated Strategies for Home Visiting and Growing Great Kids Trainer, who is passionate about mentoring and supporting home visitors in their own professional development journeys, thereby having fostered strong, secure attachments in parent-child relationships in countless families across North America. In her role as a Great Kids, Inc. master trainer, she is a member of the Trainer Mentoring and Training Development Teams.

She received her Master's degree in Human Resource Development from Towson State University and has over 23 years of experience in training and program leadership. In addition to implementing the Healthy Families-Baltimore County program, she served as the state leader of home visiting programs for Maryland State Department of Education. Programs benefiting from her training and consulting services have included: Healthy Families, Early Head Start, Kentucky HANDS, HIPPI, Healthy Start, First Nations Aboriginal Home Visiting Programs, Healthy Child Manitoba and a host of other home visiting programs across the United States and Canada.
