

Renee Knight
Trainer

Renee Knight is a GKI Integrated Strategies for Home Visiting Trainer, who has facilitated seminars and provided consultation internationally for Great Kids, Inc. since 2001. She is an Integrated Strategies Master Trainer and in this role, serves as a mentor to GKI Integrated Strategies Trainer candidates. Renee serves as an In-state Kentucky HANDS Integrated Strategies Trainer, a statewide Home Visitation network of 120 sites in Kentucky, providing comprehensive health, parenting skills, family support and child development Interventions to families with children pre-birth to 2 years. She is certified as a GKI Technical Assistance Specialist.

Renee is a graduate of the University of Kentucky Master of Social Work program. She has a valid Early Childhood Trainer Credential – Level 5 Specialty Trainer. Renee has over 30 years’ experience in the social work field. Her previous professional experience includes Child and Adult Protection, Adoption/Foster Care, Home Health and Public Health.

Committing to Our Future by Making a Difference for Children Today!
